

General Services Administration IDIQ Contract

New England

RAN Fire Protection Engineering is the lead fire protection engineering firm for the General Services Administration Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) contract. The contract covers property throughout Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York, Vermont, Rhode Island, and Connecticut the contract is extended to any of the 102 federally owned buildings in the region, including federal courthouses, office buildings and land ports of entry on the Canadian border over the course of five years. The objective of this IDIQ is to renovate, upgrade and modernize many contemporary and historic buildings throughout New England. These projects demonstrate the values of integrated design and environmental responsibility.

Veterans Affairs IDIQ Contract

Pennsylvania: Butler Veterans Affairs Health Center

RAN Fire Protection Engineering is the lead fire protection engineering firm for the IDIQ contract for the Department of Veterans Affairs, Butler VA Healthcare Center in Pennsylvania. The contract is primarily used to design new commercial/industrial type facilities and to design alterations, renovations, and rehabilitations for existing facilities. The IDIQ contract includes, but is not limited to architectural and full mechanical, electrical, plumbing, and fire protection engineering services over the course of five years.

